— Opponent

Applicant represented by Adv. A. Mashelkar.

Opponent represented by Shri L. R. Ferrao, Labour Consultant.

Panaji, dated: 3-2-1986

AWARD

This is an application under Section 33C(2) of the I.D.A., 1947, in short the Act, filed by the above applicant against the above opponent, claiming from the later the amount of Rs. 18,000/- as subsistence allowance for the period of his suspension from 1-1-1982 to 31-12-1984.

2. The employer Opponent, in its reply, has raised preliminary objections concerning the jurisdiction of this Tribunal, one of them being that this Tribunal has not been specifically appointed by the Government to entertain this application, as required under Section 33C(2) of the Act and, therefore, has no jurisdiction to entertain this application.

3. Written arguments on the above issue were filed by the Ld. Rep. of both the parties.

4. Section 33C(2) of the Act is clear to the effect that only such Labour Courts as specified by the Government are competent to entertain an application filed under the said provision. The Supreme Court also has held in the case of Treogi Nath and others V/s. Indian Iron Ore and Steel Company and others, reported in LIC 1968 page 193 that jurisdiction under Section 33C(2) can be exercised only by Courts specified in that behalf and that the mere fact that the Labour Court has been constituted under Section 7(1) of the Act for the purpose of adjudication of an industrial dispute as well as performing other functions that may be assigned to it, does not mean that that Court is automatically specified as the Court for the purpose of exercising jurisdiction under Section 33C(2) of the Act.

Since it is not proved that this Court has been specified by the Government as the proper court to entertain such application, I cannot proceed with this application and, consequently, pass the following order:

ORDER

As this Tribunal has not been specifically appointed by the Government to entertain this application, as required under Section 33C(2) of the Act, it has no jurisdiction to entertain the same and, hence, I dismiss the application and leave each party to bear its own costs.
